Addreſs of His Majeſty's Conſul and the Members of the Britiſh Factory at Leghorn to the Honourable William Frederick Wyndham, His Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Florence, publiſhed at the Requeſt of the Factory.

SIR, Leghorn, July 4, 1797.

WE, the Conſul and Members of the Britiſh Factory of Leghorn, being returned to our Place of Reſidence, and for the firſt Time legally aſſembled, embrace with Pleaſure the earlieſt Opportunity to expreſs our grateful Acknowledgments to you, Sir, for the kind Concern you have ever been pleaſed to ſhew towards our Welfare and Proſperity. But we feel ourſelves more particularly called upon to mark our Gratitude for the Zeal and Activity you diſplayed laſt Year in diſcovering and communicating to us the execrable Intentions of the French Army to violate the Neutrality of Tuſcany, and ſeize upon the Property, as well of the Engliſh Nation as of the Engliſh Individuals in this Place. To your Advice, Sir, and to that alone, is due the Merit of ſaving all the Engliſh Merchantmen in our Port, beſides the Property embarked on theſe and other Veſſels, making in all a Convoy of Forty-nine Sail, that departed from hence for Corſica on the 27th of June laſt Year: And had it not been for a Notification

DISCOVERED THREE HALFPENCE HALFPENNY HALFPENNY HALFPENNY

the Government of this City, published only Forty Hours before the Entrance of the French Troops, declaring that the Rumours spread of their coming here were false, and informing the Inhabitants in general of it's having had Ministerial Assurances that the Neutrality of Tuscany would be respected, much more would have been saved. But considering the Force of the said Notification, which kept People in Suspence until it was too late, by the rapid Approach of the Enemy, and the Confusion incident to so extraordinary and unprecedented a Case, it was to be rather wondered at that so much was done in the short Space of Sixty Hours, including the Jews and Christian Sabbath.

To commemorate the Epoch of these eminent Services and our Obligations and Gratitude, we have desired one of our Members, now in London, to get a Piece of Plate prepared, with an Inscription engraved upon it suitable to the Purpose and Occasion, and whereof we shall, in due Time, request your Acceptance.

We have the Honor to be, with the highest Consideration,

SIR,

Your most obliged and obedient humble Servants,

EXTRACT FROM THE SAID ARTICLE.

"Whereas it is alledged by divers Britiſh Merchants and others, His Majeſty's Subjects, that Debts to a conſiderable Amount, which were bona fide contracted before the Peace, ſtill remain owing to them by Citizens or Inhabitants of the United States; and that, by the Operation of various lawful Impediments ſince the Peace, not only the full Recovery of the ſaid Debts has been delayed, but alſo the Value and Security thereof have been in ſeveral Inſtances impaired and leſſened; ſo that, by the ordianry Courſe of judicial Proceedings, the Britiſh Creditors cannot now obtain and actually have and receive full and adequate Compenſation for the Loſſes and Damages which they have thereby ſuſtained: It is agreed that in all ſuch Caſes, where full Compenſation for ſuch Loſſes and Damages cannot, for whatever Reaſon, be actually obtained, had and received by the ſaid Creditors, in the ordinary Courſe of Juſtice, the United States will make full and complete Compenſation for the ſame to the ſaid Creditors; but it is diſtinctly underſtood that this Proviſion is to extend to ſuch Loſſes only as have been occaſioned by the lawful Impediments aforeſaid, and is not to extend to Loſſes occaſioned by ſuch Inſolvency of the Debtors, or other Cauſes, as would equally have operated to produce ſuch Loſs, if the ſaid Impediments had not exiſted; nor to ſuch Loſſes or Damages as have been occaſioned by the manifeſt Delay or Negligence, or wilful Omiſſion of the Claimant."
